AUDIT FINDINGS

NARRATIVE:

The audit of Blue Ridge Regional Jail (Bedford Adult Detention Facility here after referred to as BADC) was conducted on August 24-26, 2014 by Jeffery L. Newton, Certified PREA auditor. The areas toured were a total of 9 inmate housing units, 8 are multi-occupancy cellblocks and 1 is open-bay/dormitory and the facility has three segregation cells. All general population housing units are supervised with indirect supervision. There is one female housing unit. The facility does not house any juvenile offenders.

An entrance meeting was held with facility representatives. The following staff were in attendance: Agency PREA Coordinator Sergeant Jon Hughes, Facility PREA Compliance Manager Lieutenant Scott Sears and Facility Administrator Captain Mark Cahow.

Following the entrance meeting I toured the BADC from 8:30 – 9:30. On the tour with me was, Agency PREA Coordinator Sergeant Jon Hughes, Facility PREA Compliance Manager Lieutenant Scott Sears and Facility Administrator Captain Mark Cahow.

I asked for an alpha listing of all inmates housed at BADC and randomly selected one inmate from each housing unit. There were no hearing/vision impairment inmates, there were no non-English speaking inmates and, there were no mentally disabled inmates, transgender, intersex, gender nonconforming or juveniles (all juvenile offenders are housed in another facility for the Authority) present in the facility. I was able to interview one lesbian inmate and one female inmate that had reported being previously sexually abused. I also asked for a shift roster - since the facility was so small I interviewed all on-duty staff.

There were no sexual assault/harassment allegation cases reported within the past year. However, a recent allegation of sexual assault had been made within seven days of the scheduled audit. The results of that allegation are currently under investigation both by the Blue Ridge Regional Jail Authority, Internal Affairs Lieutenant and the responsible law enforcement agency the Bedford Police Department.

DESCRIPTION OF FACILITY CHARACTERISTICS:

The BADC is located at 1000 Broad St. Bedford, Virginia 24523. It is one of 5 jails within the Blue Ridge Regional Jail Authority which was established in 1998. The Blue Ridge Regional Jail Authority also operates facilities in Halifax County, Campbell County, and City of Lynchburg. It operates a facility in Madison Heights, Virginia that services the counties of Amherst and Appomattox.

The BADC is operated under the direction of Captain Mark O. Cahow and employs 37 staff members. It is located in the Town of Bedford, but houses inmates for both the Town and County of Bedford. It houses inmates of all classification levels, both male and female inmates, pre-trial as well as post-trial inmates waiting transfer to the Virginia Department of Corrections. It has a total of 9 inmate housing units, all are indirect supervision. Five of these units are located on the 1st floor of the facility. One unit is an open dorm with 28 beds. There are 4 other units on this floor, two 4 cell units with 7 beds each and two 5 cell units with 10 beds each. There are four housing units located on the second floor, also with two 4 cell units with 7 beds each and two 5 cell units with 10 beds each. The facility is designed to house 55 inmates (both male and female), there were 87 inmates present on the dates of the audit.

In addition to the inmate housing areas it has an intake area, laundry facility, library, food service as well as medical services.
